Dear Dr. Curry

My name is Vandhana Misri and I have recently joined the IP department here at QLT and have assumed some of the responsibilities associated with Cherie Davis' role as Cherie is no longer with the company.

I am in the midst of reviewing all outstanding items and it appears that Cherie forwarded to you via courier on September 14, 2007 a Declaration and Assignment document for execution and I was hoping that I might be able to collect those same signed documents from you soon as the due date for filing them with the patent office is fast approaching.

Please advise me as to when I might make arrangements for a courier to collect the documents.

If you have any questions or require any further information please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Vandhana Misri, BA

Dear Ms. Misri,

I am simpy too busy to seek out a lawyer or notary public, arrange an appointment and deliver these documents. It fascinates me the QLT is prepared to compensate a notary public or lawyer for a moment of their time but that the hours of my time that would be spent doing this are regarded as trivial. I am sure that you have reviewed the file and seen that I signed away any royalties from this patent for one dollar. Therefore, I have absolutely nothing to gain by taking the time to complete these documents and it appears that I am being asked to provide this service as a charity to QLT.

Given these circumstances, I propose the following:

Provide proof to me that QLT has donated $500 (Canadian) to the David Sheldrick Trust. On receipt of the donation, I will seek out a notary public, sign the documents and have them returned to QLT.

If this is somehow disagreeable, please do not bother me with any more emails or phone calls.

Dear Dr. Curry

Further to my email below of October 3, 2007 with respect to the execution of the attached Assignment and Declaration documents for filing with the USPTO, please be advised that I have revised the Assignment documents to eliminate the requirement for you to have your signature notarized and would therefore greatly appreciate if you could please print out and execute the attached and either fax them back to me at the number below or contact me and I can arrange for courier pick up. The final deadline date by which to file these documents with the USPTO is approaching shortly and your cooperation would be most appreciated.

If I can be of further assistance please do not hesitate to contact me.

amended 04Sep2007.. Application as ... for Mark Cu...

Dear Dr. Curry

Further to my email below of October 22, 2007 with respect to the execution of the attached Assignment and Declaration documents for filing with the USPTO, please be advised that the deadline by which to file the documents for the above-referenced case is still pending and I would greatly appreciate if you could please print out and execute the attached and either fax them back to me at the number below or contact me and I can arrange for courier pick up. The final deadline date by which to file these documents with the USPTO is approaching shortly and your cooperation would be most appreciated.

If I can be of further assistance please do no hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
Vandhana Misri

Dear Dr. Curry

Thank you very much for your email below.

I can appreciate that you are very busy and would be happy to make the necessary arrangements to have someone come to you to complete the required notarizations, please let me know when a convenient time and place would be and I would be more than happy to do so.

Please find attached for your convenience an electronic version of; the application as filed, the Assignment document and the Declaration for each of the cases referenced above. Please review the applications and print-off the related documents for execution where your name is indicated. As I said, please let me know when I should arrange to have our counsel come to you to complete the notarization process.

If I can be of further assistance please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Misri,

I am simply too busy to seek out a lawyer or notary public, arrange an appointment and deliver these documents. It fascinates me the QLT is prepared to compensate a notary public or lawyer for a moment of their time but that the hours of my time that would be spent doing this are regarded as trivial. I am sure that you have reviewed the file and seen that I signed away any royalties from this patent for one dollar. Therefore, I have absolutely nothing to gain by taking the time to complete these documents and it appears that I am being asked to provide this service as a charity to QLT. Given these circumstances, I propose the following:
Provide proof to me that QLT has donated $500 (Canadian) to the David Sheldrick Trust. On receipt of the donation, I will seek out a notary public, sign the documents and have them returned to QLT.

If this is somehow disagreeable, please do not bother me with any more emails or phone calls.
Mark Curry
